

SAMUEL CARPENTER

Samuel Carpenter, the son of James Carpenter, was born about 1785 in Anthony Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. He married Rebecca Machlan, the daughter of John Machlan, Sr. and Hester Updegraff Machlan. This marriage probably occurred around 1810. The 1810 census of Anthony Township, Lycoming County shows a Samuel Carpenter as Head of Family. One male and one female are shown in the 16-25 age bracket. We may surmise this census listing to be Samuel and Rebecca Carpenter.

Samuel and Rebecca moved to Butler County, Ohio sometime between 1812 and 1816 as evidenced by the place of birth listed in census listings for their children. Their place of settlement is believed to have been Ross Township. In 1839 they moved to Rush County, Indiana, settling near the small community of Moscow in Orange Township.

Samuel died on April 23, 1872 in Rush County, Indiana and is believed buried at the Milroy, Indiana cemetery. Rebecca, who was born in 1789, preceded Samuel in death on February 6, 1847. She is buried in the Machlan family burial plot located on the Machlan farm near Moscow.

Copy verbatim on this form the information you find in the various records or books as you do your research. (You will find differences in records.) Make a separate sheet for each search or each name or family on your line found in a search. Then, after information has been extracted from all sources, you may easily make comparisons of statements, judge value of each, and record correct data on a permanent form such as A1, F1, F3 or F6. See The Sixth Edition THE HOW BOOK FOR GENEALOGISTS for additional suggestions regarding the use of this sheet.
